

What is your definition of happiness Mr Hitchcock?

Nothing to worry about on your plate. Only things that are creative, not destructive. When you look forward and the road is clear ahead. And now you are going to create something